

Im Adrienne Haus, survivor of a mother-daughter book club. Most of us didnt want to join. My mother signed me up because I was stuck at home all summer, with my knee in a brace. CeeCees parents forced her to join after cancelling her Paris trip because she bashed up their car. The members of The Unbearable Book Club, CeeCee, Jill, Wallis, and I, were all going into eleventh grade A.P. English. But we werent friends. We were literary prisoners, sweating, reading classics, and hanging out at the pool. If you want to find out how membership in a book club can end up with a person being dead, you can probably look us up under mother-daughter literary catastrophe. Or open this book and read my essay, which Ill turn in when I go back to school.
