This poem is about the wonders of Winter and the beauty it brings to our lives. I will gaze at the stars, And maybe even Mars, They are all so bright, On a wonderful clear winter night, For a white blanket as you slumber, Yummy things like hot. We included both colorful photos (especially the colors of sunrise and sunset bring out the beauty of the winter landscape) and black-and-white.

In the spirit of simplifying, we're seeing less and less green and red, and more and more basic white, making your festivities reminiscent of a winter wonderland.
